By MERICK This book is a well-written history of one Catholic priest, Father Bill Wassmuth and his stand on racial superiority in northern Idaho. It is well-documented and written. I know! I lived in the area at the time when the Aryan nations were a threat. Sadly, Father Wassmuth died but his legacy lives on!

A thoughtful book that grew out of the last interviews with noted Northwest human rights activist and former Catholic priest Bill Wassmuth. Vogt documents Wassmuth's unique story.
