"Testify" for PreachingBy Sierra13I knew nothing about Cleophus LaRue prior to seminary but he is essential to the Black preaching experience and this book is definitely a keepsake!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A good and stimulating read for beginning students and for review ...By CarolynA good and stimulating read for beginning students and for review by established preachers. The author is very experienced and was thoroughly informative in detailing the art, the language, preparation and delivery of a well-thought out sermon.

Cleo LaRue is one of the best-loved preachers and writers about preaching. In past volumes, he has brought together great collections of African American preaching to showcase the best preaching from across the country. Here he offers his own insights into what makes for great preaching. Filled with telling anecdotes, LaRue's book recognizes that while great preaching comes from somewhere, it also must go somewhere, so preachers need to use the most artful language to send the Word on its journey.

About the AuthorCleophus J. Larue is Francis Landey Patton Professor of Homiletics at Princeton Theological Seminary in Princeton, New Jersey, and the author of The Heart of Black Preaching and the editor of Power in the Pulpit: How Americas Most Effective Black Preachers Prepare Their Sermons.
