volunteers and others Survivors : The Post Katrina Portraits before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Post Katrina Portraits:

A one of a kind artistic, historic and journalistic effort. Common Ground Collective volunteer and embedded artist, Franceseco Di Santis sketched over 2000 portraits in the days and weeks following Hurricane Katrina. Survivors and volunteers then wrote their experiences on these portraits in their own handwriting. The result is a compelling piece of primary source material about the collective experience of the disaster. This book presents over 400 of these portraits in a 1st Edition high-quality hardcover w/ dust jacket edition.
