Muf : This Is What We Do: A Muf Manual before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised This Is What We Do: A Muf Manual:

A mixture of manual and monograph which outlines the working practices and projects of "muf", a high-profile collaborative art and architecture practice committed to working in public spaces. An all-women practice with a string of innovative urban projects and the glory of having been sacked from the Millennium Dome, "muf" have obtained a certain notoriety, largely through media interest often focused on gender rather than their work as architects.
