From Brand: Springer Publishing Company : Voices and Visions of Aging: Toward a Critical Gerontology before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Voices and Visions of Aging: Toward a Critical Gerontology:

A critical gerontology requires more than a simple elaboration of existing humanistic scholarship on aging. This exceptional new work introduces a basis for genuine dialogue across humanistic, scientific, and professional disciplines. Among the topics addressed are industrial employment, retirement, life styles of older women, and biological research. From philosophical reflections on the "third age" to critical perspectives on institutional adaptations to an aging society, this book presents a wide range of provocative thought.
