When he plays fetch with his boy he realizes the little boy's friends tease the young boy that his dog can't see and they tell him to get a new puppy. Fergus finds a new friend that helps him see. One day Fergus learns a lesson that although it's wonderful to have help from others it's important to believe in yourself. You never know what you can do until you set your mind to it.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent Book!!!!By Fit4Life218My daughter LOVES this book!!!! Productions, L.L.C., which has offered self-esteem programs and products to children from pre-school through high school since 1972. She conducts workshops and in-service training for parents and teachers. Much of Marion's work has been for the improvement of the quality of "childhood". Marion is dedicated to "turning kids on to learning, living and laughing." She states: "Our Country's most valuable natural resource is her children. Yet, we have been so concerned with giving our children a brighter future, that we have lost sight of our real mission. . . . That is, to give the future brighter children. . . especially in terms of respect and acceptance of self and of others. Then, in turn, they will create a brighter future!" Marion has appeared on numerous talk shows nationwide. Her work was featured at the Mill Valley Film Festival in 1986. She was a judge for the San Francisco International Film Festival in 1987. She has written songs and authored several children's books featuring the I Like Me! Kids 'n Kritters from Abalobediah, which she has created along with her artist and partner, Laurie Eichhorn.
