before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Women at War, Women Building Peace: Challenging Gender Norms:

During times of civil conflict and war, why do some women turn to militant action while others seek peaceful resolutions? And why does the answer matter? Tackling these questions in their provocative analysis, Joyce Kaufman and Kristen Williams explore the full range of women's responses to armed struggles.

[A] clear, insightful, and important text. (John Wilson International Studies)About the AuthorJoyce P.
