Mavis E. Mate : Women in Medieval English Society (New Studies in Economic and Social History) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Women in Medieval English

Society (New Studies in Economic and Social History):

This book presents a concise and accessible introduction to the various issues and debates surrounding women and their position in medieval society. Professor Mate examines the role women played in the economy, clarifies legal provisions for women and highlights the importance of class, as well as gender, in determining marriage and opportunities.

"[Mate] looks at the ways in which historians have seen the position of women in medieval society from the beginning of the Anglo-Saxon period to the end of the 15th century." Book News "Mate's book contains much useful information and makes a compelling argument..." Comitatus
